Presidential Elections Committee met today under the chairmanship of Justice/ Anwar Al-Assy Chairman of the Committee with the Chief of the European Union Egyptian Election Observation Mission as soon as he arrived in Cairo to discuss observation actions and what can be done by the committee or any of the state bodies to facilitate procedures. The two parties stressed their keenness on continuation of observation mission work. The committee, with the help of some state bodies, has been able to remove all obstacles that could lead to failure to accelerate in the observation procedures. Thus all the mission equipment for the observation process have been released. The Chief of the mission stressed that there is nothing that would hinder the mission's conducting their observation task.
