Judge Dr./ Abdul Aziz Salman, Secretary General of the Presidential Elections Committee, stated that in the context of the Committee's examination of all the work of the polling stations and district committees all over the country, and in no relevance to any appeal submitted from any of the two candidates, it was noted that within the minutes of polling station no. 1 in district committee no. 3 of Ras El-Bar at Damietta governorate, there was an error in six votes. Immediately a committee of the General Secretariat was formed to re-examine the ballot papers in the mentioned polling station. This committee then brought the ballot papers to be counted again by the Secretariat. As the Presidential Elections Committee re-examines all papers of the electoral process of all committees in no relevance to the appeals presented by the two candidates.
